Officers Are Real People Too

Lawyer, pastor, volunteer coach, foster parent, youth leader, mom, dad, grandma, grandpa - these are just a few of the other descriptions our nearly 1,900 police officers go by.

While the Columbus Division of Police will celebrate National Police Week May 15th – May 19th, we've decided to honor the good deeds our officers do every day, out of uniform, because officers are real people too.

Starting today, May 1st, and each day this month, we will highlight an officer who goes above and beyond his or her duties of protecting and serving. We'll share their stories on Columbus Police social media.

The Columbus police officers help those in need, put their lives on the line and in their personal time continue to make a difference.

We can't wait to share what all we have in store for National Police Week, but for now, please share our social media pages promoting Officers Are Real People Too.
